

FACULTY OF ARTS
CHARLES UNIVERSITY IN PRAGUE

PRAGUE JEWISH STUDIES

Lukas Pribyl

(born 24.08.1973)

EDUCATION

2007 – 2008 PAIDEIA INSTITUTE, Stockholm, Sweden

- Amalie Beer Fellowship

M.A.

2006 – 2007 CENTRAL EUROPEAN UNIVERSITY, Budapest, Hungary

- Thesis: „With distinction“; CEU scholarship; Academic Pro-Rector's Excellence Award

1997 – 1998 COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY, New York, United States

B.A.

1992 – 1996 BRANDEIS UNIVERSITY, Waltham, Massachusetts, United States

- majors: Politics
- Summa Cum Laude; thesis – „Highest Honors“; Phi Beta Kappa Honors Society; „Dean's List“ all semesters; Elsie Witt Award; Wien International Scholarship

HIGH SCHOOL

1991 – 1992 PHILLIPS ACADEMY ANDOVER, Andover, Massachusetts, United States

- Cum Laude Society; „Honor Roll“ all trimesters
- The Phillips Academy Academic Scholarship; Charter 77 Foundation scholarship

1987 – 1991 GYMNÁZIUM NA ZATLANCE, Prague, Czech Republic

- Highest Honors (Maturita s vyznamenáním)

PRAGUE JEWISH STUDIES

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2010 – 2011 DIRECTOR

EUROPEAN SHOAH LEGACY INSTITUTE

2009 – 2010 ADVISOR ON THE EUROPEAN SHOAH LEGACY INSTITUTE

MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS OF THE CZECH REPUBLIC

1999 – 2009 PRODUCER, DIRECTOR, SCREENWRITER, RESEARCHER

- “FORGOTTEN TRANSPORTS” FILM SERIES – four feature-length documentary movies (4 x 90 minutes – edited from over 400 hours of material filmed in twenty countries)
- Films: To Latvia (2007) ; To Belarus (2008); To Estonia (2008); To Poland (2009)
- AWARDS: CZECH ACADEMY AWARDS (Czech Lion) in the category of BEST DOCUMENTARY FILM; CZECH ACADEMY AWARDS (Czech Lion) - FILM CRITICS’ AWARD FOR BEST CZECH DOCUMENTARY; KOUTECKY AWARD – SPECIAL AWARD BY THE JURY FOR BEST DOCUMENTARY; Nominated for the SILVER EYE AWARD for the BEST CENTRAL AND EAST EUROPEAN DOCUMENTARY; AUDIENCE AWARD - One World Human Rights FF 2009; BEST CZECH POPULAR SCIENCE DOCUMENTARY - Academia Film Olomouc FF; DĚJINY A SOUČASNOST MAGAZINE AWARD FOR BEST CZECH HISTORY DOCUMENTARY - Academia Film Olomouc FF; FILM AND TELEVISION ASSOCIATION TRILOBIT AWARD for BEST CZECH DOCUMENTARY; SILVER MENORAH for BEST DOCUMENTARY WITH A JEWITH THEME, etc.
- SELECTED FESTIVALS: Karlovy Vary IFF; Gothenburg IFF; Tirana IFF; One World Human Rights FF; Palm Springs IFF (short-listed for Audience Award) and 2010; New York Jewish FF (5th place in Audience Award); Finale Plzen 2009; Minneapolis IFF; Vancouver DOXA FF; Sao Paulo JFF; Hong Kong JFF; Jihlava IDFF; etc.
- Member of the EUROPEAN FILM ACADEMY; member of the CZECH FILM ACADEMY

PRAGUE JEWISH STUDIES

LARGER PUBLICATIONS

- 2003 Translation into English: “Václav Havel – Bořek Šípek: Castle works 1992 - 2002“
By Petr Volf.
BREDA Publishing House, Opava, 2003.
- 2002 “The Story of Escape of Nos. As 232 and As 233 from Zamosc”.
(Published in Czech and German).
In: Theresienstädter Studien und Dokumente 2002. Editors: Miroslav Kárný,
Jaroslava Milotová and Eva Lorencová. Academia Publishing House,
Theresienstadt Initiative Institute, pp. 252-271.
- 2001 “The History of the Theresienstadt transport Be to Estonia”.
(Published in Czech and German).
In: Theresienstädter Studien und Dokumente 2001. Editors: Miroslav Kárný,
Jaroslava Milotová and Eva Lorencová. Academia Publishing House,
Theresienstadt Initiative Institute, pp. 148-229.
- 2000 “The fate of the third Protectorate transport to Nisko”.
(Published in Czech and German).
In: Theresienstädter Studien und Dokumente 2000. Editors: Miroslav Kárný
and Eva Lorencová. Academia Publishing House, Theresienstadt Initiative
Institute, pp. 297-342.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Lectured extensively to university and high school students on history of the Holocaust and film related topics (Universities: Brasil – FAAP; Hungary – CEU; High schools: United States, Czech Republic, Denmark, Lithuania; general audiences in Argentina, Brasil, Czech Republic, Lithuania, Poland, Sweden, United States). Experience with speaking to audiences of up to 1400 people.